

VIRTUAL STICHING FESTIVAL

A virtual Stitching Festival is being held to raise money for The Butterfly Tree.

A concept called Stitchedstories, created by Fiona Doubleday, on the Isle of Arran, has a global following. The four day festival will include:

- ❖ Traditional embroidery with contemporary applications
- ❖ A repair cafe for textiles
- ❖ Stitched Stories Virtual Studio
- ❖ In conversation with Cas Holmes, Textile Artist

To make a donation please use this link:
